EuroVAT's Event Planner Services

EuroVAT offers advice for how to manage the VAT for an upcoming meeting and our leading VAT experts have the specialized knowledge and procedures in place in order to expedite your claims for prompt returns and maximized refunds. Among our clients are many established event planners, several Fortune 500 companies and major movie and entertainment production companies.

VAT Registration for a Meeting

When VAT registration is required, it is very important that this is done by the planner and/or corporation producing the event at the planning stage, prior to business transactions taking place.

1. Register for VAT in the country of event.
2. Charge VAT to eligible attendees/exhibitors/sponsors, or, charge VAT to the client - the company organizing the event.
3. Deduct the VAT incurred from the local vendors.
4. Declare the VAT to the local tax authorities.
5. Savings: the VAT incurred from the vendors.

New VAT rules went into effect during 2011. Contact Euro VAT Refund in order to find out what the new rules might mean for your next planned event.
